

RUTH TIIDOR

Year of birth                    1970
Nationality                    Estonian

Recent affiliation

National Archives of Estonia, head of preservation department, 1999-present

Education

MSc in Chemistry and Conservation of Cultural Heritage, Tartu University, 1992

Previous important affiliations

Estonian Historical Archives, head of conservation department, 1997-1998
Estonian Historical Archives, paper conservator, 1992-1996

Teaching

Tartu University, online course Document and archive management in the information age, lecturer, 2014-present
Pallas University of Applied Sciences, department of leather design and restoration, thesis supervisor, 2011 and 2018

Most important publications

Atlas of damage descriptions of archival materials = Arhiivimaterjalide kahjustuste atlas = Arhīva dokumentu bojājumu katalogs. Compilers: Ruth Tiidor et al., Tartu 2013. ISBN 978-9985-858-82-0

Guidelines on exhibiting archival materials. Compiled by the ICA Committee on Preservation of Archives in Temperate Climates (CPTe 2002–2006) –
https://www.ica.org/sites/default/files/CPTe\_2006\_guideline\_exhibition\_EN.pdf [25th May 2020]

Active Member of associations

European Research Centre for Book and Paper Conservation-Restoration, national representative, since 2019
Society of Estonian Conservators, member, since 1999